BA in History

The Department of Geography, Sociology, History, African-American Studies, and Anthropology offers a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Africana Studies and a minor in History and Africana Studies for students majoring in other disciplines. All department majors must complete the assessment requirements specific to their major field, copies of which can be obtained from the departmental website.

The department's Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Africana Studies consists of three options: Liberal Arts Option in History, Liberal Arts Option in Africana Studies, and Secondary Teaching Option in History. Students enrolled in the Liberal Arts Option in History may prepare for careers such as law, public service, government, foreign relations, or for postgraduate study.

Highlights

- Classes cover a wide range of American and World History, with a particular focus on African- American and African History
- Flexible major with a large number of electives
- Can lead to careers and graduate study in law, public service, teaching, foreign relations, and more
